OPENLINE
877.631.0020 (toll-free) 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

The Huntington Ingalls Industries OpenLine is available to anyone affiliated with Huntington Ingalls Industries. Individuals can seek guidance or report a suspected violation of our Code of Ethics and Business Conduct. It is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and is administered by an external supplier.

WEB REPORTING
https://hii-openline.alertline.com/gcs/welcome

ETHICS WEB SITE

RESPONSIBILITY AND CONSEQUENCES
Our company Code of Ethics and Business Conduct applies to anyone who represents or is affiliated with Huntington Ingalls Industries. Violating rules relating to our relationships with the U.S. Government or to our commercial customers may result in serious consequences up to and including termination of one’s relationship with the company.

Responsibility
Responsibility and accountability are the cornerstones of business. Huntington Ingalls Industries resources including time, property, information, and services should be used only for authorized business purposes.

Consequences
In the event of a violation of any of the above expectations, we may pursue corrective actions to remedy the situation. In the case of a violation of law or regulation, we may be required to report those violations to proper authorities. We reserve the right to terminate our relationship with any supplier under the terms of the existing procurement/purchasing contract.

Resources
Huntington Ingalls Industries resources including time, property, information, and services should be used only for authorized business purposes.

Correct charging of time helps determine how employees are paid, customers are billed, costs are estimated for new work, contract costs are allocated, and performance is reported.

Time records submitted must be accurate. Misrepresenting time worked is prohibited. Intentionally charging time to the wrong contract or account is mischarging. Expenses must be documented accurately, adequately, and submitted promptly.

Property, especially electronic media, should never be used for purposes which are disruptive or considered offensive.

Information is an asset as valuable as money. We do not seek information to which we are not entitled, especially sensitive procurement information, nor will we violate copyrights or licensing agreements. Company information may not be used for personal gain and classified information must be handled and safeguarded in strict compliance with Security procedures.

Anyone acting on the company’s behalf is strictly prohibited from circumventing the company’s system of internal controls or providing misleading information on company documents.

X Ethics Program Expectations
• Whistle blower Protection
We expect our suppliers to provide their employees with avenues for raising legal or ethical issues or concerns without fear of retaliation. We expect our suppliers to take action to prevent, detect, and correct any retaliatory actions.

• Consequences for Violating Code
In the event of a violation of any of the above expectations, we may pursue corrective actions to remedy the situation. In the case of a violation of law or regulation, we may be required to report those violations to proper authorities. We reserve the right to terminate our relationship with any supplier under the terms of the existing procurement/purchasing contract.

• Ethics Policies
Commensurate with the size and nature of their business, we expect our suppliers to have management systems in place to support compliance with laws, regulations, and the expectations related to or addressed expressly within this Supplier Code of Conduct. We encourage our suppliers to implement their own written code of conduct and to flow down the principles of a code of conduct to the entities that furnish them with goods and services.

• Resources
Huntington Ingalls Industries resources including time, property, information, and services should be used only for authorized business purposes.

Correct charging of time helps determine how employees are paid, customers are billed, costs are estimated for new work, contract costs are allocated, and performance is reported.

Time records submitted must be accurate. Misrepresenting time worked is prohibited. Intentionally charging time to the wrong contract or account is mischarging. Expenses must be documented accurately, adequately, and submitted promptly.

Property, especially electronic media, should never be used for purposes which are disruptive or considered offensive.

Information is an asset as valuable as money. We do not seek information to which we are not entitled, especially sensitive procurement information, nor will we violate copyrights or licensing agreements. Company information may not be used for personal gain and classified information must be handled and safeguarded in strict compliance with Security procedures.

Anyone acting on the company’s behalf is strictly prohibited from circumventing the company’s system of internal controls or providing misleading information on company documents.

HUNTINGTON INGALLS INDUSTRIES VALUES
We, the women and men of Huntington Ingalls Industries, are guided by the following VALUES. They describe our company as we want it to be. We want our decisions and actions to demonstrate these VALUES. We believe that putting our VALUES into practice creates long-term benefits for shareholders, customers, employees, suppliers, and the communities we serve.

At Huntington Ingalls Industries, We Value:

INTEGRITY
Integrity is at the heart of who we are and what we do. We are each personally accountable for the highest standards of ethics and integrity. We will fulfill our commitments as responsible citizens and employees. We will consistently treat customers and company resources with the respect they deserve.

SAFETY
We value our employees above all else and will not compromise on maintaining a safe and healthy work environment for them. We expect everyone to actively participate and take responsibility for their own safety and the safety of those around them. Employees can report safety concerns without fear of reprisal and are empowered to stop work if an operation presents significant risk or danger. We continuously evaluate and improve our operations to understand and mitigate risk.

HONESTY
We are committed to being honest and fair with our customers, our employees, our stockholders and each other. We will be truthful, trustworthy and honorable in all aspects of our work.

ENGAGEMENT
We are committed to an engaged workforce. Our employees are very involved in what they do and take ownership of their work and work processes. Engagement is a heightened level of ownership where employees want to do whatever they can for the benefit of their internal and external customers and for the success of the organization as a whole.

RESPONSIBILITY
We seek and accept personal responsibility for our actions and results. We keep promises and commitments made to others. We are responsible for ensuring quality is a component of everything we do. We take pride in providing outstanding customer service.

PERFORMANCE
We hold ourselves to a very high standard of performance. We are committed to improving our company performance while upholding our strong values. Superior performance and quality ensure future trust and confidence in our products and services. We promote continuous improvement, innovation and creativity.

Copyright © 2011 Huntington Ingalls Industries, Inc.; rev. 11/14

"Leaders at all levels must be committed to live the company values and adhere to the highest ethical standards. We must continue to do everything in our power to keep the culture of the Company grounded in our integrity."

Mike Petters
President and Chief Executive Officer
Huntington Ingalls Industries, Inc.
SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

Gaynor L. Travis, President and CEO
June 2023

General Disclaimer
This supplier Code of Conduct is in no way intended to conflict with or modify the terms and conditions of any existing contract. In the event of a conflict, suppliers must first adhere to the applicable laws and regulations, then the contract terms, followed by this supplier code of Conduct.

Compliance with Laws
Huntington Ingalls Industries has embraced a set of values and established high ethical standards for the conduct of our business.

Huntington Ingalls Industries considers adherence to our company Values and Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, as well as strict observance of all U.S. and foreign laws and regulations, to be not only a legal requirement but also an ethical obligation for all.

Everyone associated with Huntington Ingalls Industries is expected to make this commitment his/her own. This includes non-employees, such as consultants, agents, contract labor, employees of limited liability companies, joint ventures, and anyone who represents the company in any capacity—regardless of their position. Individuals are responsible for the integrity and consequences of any actions that are taken on behalf of Huntington Ingalls Industries.

We expect our suppliers to maintain full compliance with all laws and regulations applicable to their business. When conducting international business, or if their primary place of business is outside the United States, suppliers must comply with local laws and regulations.

A. Maintain Accurate Records
We expect suppliers to create accurate records, and not alter any record entry to conceal or misrepresent the underlying transaction represented by it. All records, regardless of format, must be received as evidence of a business transaction must fully and accurately represent the transaction or event being documented. When a record is no longer needed to conduct current business, records should still be retained based on the applicable retention requirements. Suppliers performing as US Government contractors (whether direct or indirect) must comply with the requirements in FAR 4.703. Suppliers that are performing or facilitating the delivery of a product whose quality meets or exceeds our company’s quality standards. We expect our suppliers to have in place quality assurance processes to ensure the security of their supply chains in accordance with the Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) initiative of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

B. Import
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

C. Export
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the export of parts, components, and technical data.

D. Anti-Boycott
Our suppliers must not participate in, cooperate with, or further the cause of any unsanctioned foreign economic boycott, in accordance with the 1977 Export Administration Act and the 1976 Tax Reform Act.

E. Quality
Suppliers must take due care to ensure their work product meets our company’s quality standards. We expect our suppliers to provide notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of our company and personal interest or those close of relatives, friends or associates.

F. Information Protection
We expect our suppliers to properly handle sensitive information, including confidential, proprietary, and personal information, and follow all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

G. Anti-Corruption Laws
We expect our suppliers to refrain from offering or making any improper payments of money or anything of value to government officials, political parties, candidates for public office, or other persons. This includes a prohibition on facilitating payments intended to expedite or secure performance of a routine government action like obtaining a visa or customs clearance, even in locations where such actions are common and do not signifying improper payments.

H. Anti-Corruption
We expect our suppliers to compete on the merits of their products and services. The exchange of business courtesies may not be used to gain an unfair competitive advantage. In any business relationship, our suppliers must ensure that the offering or receipt of any gift or business courtesy is permitted by all applicable laws and regulations, and that these exchanges do not violate the rules and standards of the recipient’s organization, and are consistent with reasonable marketplace customs and practices.

I. Insider Trading
Our suppliers and their personnel must not use material, non-publicly disclosed information obtained in the course of their business relationship with us as the basis for trading or for enabling others to trade in the securities of our company or those of any other company.

J. Conflict of Interest
We expect our suppliers to offer notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of our company and personal interest or those close of relatives, friends or associates.

VI. Information Protection
We expect our suppliers to properly handle sensitive information, including confidential, proprietary, and personal information, and follow all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

VII. Environment, Health, and Safety
We expect our suppliers to operate in a manner that actively manages risk, conserves natural resources, and protects the environment. We expect our suppliers to apply environmental management system principles in order to establish a systematic approach to the management of risks/hazards and opportunities associated with the environment, including potential risk from regulatory noncompliance, reputational loss, and operational risks associated with growing business through operational and product stewardship.

We expect our suppliers to comply with all applicable environmental, health and safety laws, regulations, and directives. Suppliers should protect the health, safety, and welfare of their people, visitors, and others who may be affected by their activities.

VIII. Global Trade Compliance
A. Security
When applicable, suppliers are encouraged to implement practices and procedures to ensure the security of their supply chains in accordance with the Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) initiative of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

B. Import
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

C. Export
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the export of parts, components, and technical data.

D. Anti-Boycott
Our suppliers must not participate in, cooperate with, or further the cause of any unsanctioned foreign economic boycott, in accordance with the 1977 Export Administration Act and the 1976 Tax Reform Act.

E. Quality
Suppliers must take due care to ensure their work product meets our company’s quality standards. We expect our suppliers to provide notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of our company and personal interest or those close of relatives, friends or associates.

VI. Information Protection
We expect our suppliers to properly handle sensitive information, including confidential, proprietary, and personal information, and follow all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

VII. Environment, Health, and Safety
We expect our suppliers to operate in a manner that actively manages risk, conserves natural resources, and protects the environment. We expect our suppliers to apply environmental management system principles in order to establish a systematic approach to the management of risks/hazards and opportunities associated with the environment, including potential risk from regulatory noncompliance, reputational loss, and operational risks associated with growing business through operational and product stewardship.

We expect our suppliers to comply with all applicable environmental, health and safety laws, regulations, and directives. Suppliers should protect the health, safety, and welfare of their people, visitors, and others who may be affected by their activities.

VIII. Global Trade Compliance
A. Security
When applicable, suppliers are encouraged to implement practices and procedures to ensure the security of their supply chains in accordance with the Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) initiative of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

B. Import
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

C. Export
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the export of parts, components, and technical data.

D. Anti-Boycott
Our suppliers must not participate in, cooperate with, or further the cause of any unsanctioned foreign economic boycott, in accordance with the 1977 Export Administration Act and the 1976 Tax Reform Act.

E. Quality
Suppliers must take due care to ensure their work product meets our company’s quality standards. We expect our suppliers to provide notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of our company and personal interest or those close of relatives, friends or associates.

VI. Information Protection
We expect our suppliers to properly handle sensitive information, including confidential, proprietary, and personal information, and follow all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

VII. Environment, Health, and Safety
We expect our suppliers to operate in a manner that actively manages risk, conserves natural resources, and protects the environment. We expect our suppliers to apply environmental management system principles in order to establish a systematic approach to the management of risks/hazards and opportunities associated with the environment, including potential risk from regulatory noncompliance, reputational loss, and operational risks associated with growing business through operational and product stewardship.

We expect our suppliers to comply with all applicable environmental, health and safety laws, regulations, and directives. Suppliers should protect the health, safety, and welfare of their people, visitors, and others who may be affected by their activities.

VIII. Global Trade Compliance
A. Security
When applicable, suppliers are encouraged to implement practices and procedures to ensure the security of their supply chains in accordance with the Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) initiative of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

B. Import
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the import of parts, components, and technical data.

C. Export
We expect our suppliers to ensure that their business practices are in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations governing the export of parts, components, and technical data.

D. Anti-Boycott
Our suppliers must not participate in, cooperate with, or further the cause of any unsanctioned foreign economic boycott, in accordance with the 1977 Export Administration Act and the 1976 Tax Reform Act.

E. Quality
Suppliers must take due care to ensure their work product meets our company’s quality standards. We expect our suppliers to provide notification to all affected parties in the event that an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes a conflict between the interests of our company and personal interest or those close of relatives, friends or associates.