

Kellye Walker

Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer

Kellye Walker is executive vice president and chief legal officer for Huntington Ingalls Industries, America's largest military shipbuilding company and a provider of professional services to partners in government and industry.

Serving in this role since January 2015, she has overall leadership responsibility for HII's law department and outside counsel, which provide a broad range of legal advice and support for the company's business activities, including corporate governance matters, compliance, litigation management, and mergers and acquisitions.

Walker came to HII from American Water Works Co., the country's largest investor-owned water and wastewater utility company, where she held the roles of chief administrative officer, senior vice president, general counsel and secretary. She previously served as senior vice president and general counsel at Diageo North America and as senior vice president, general counsel and secretary for BJ's Wholesale Club.

She earned a bachelor's degree at Louisiana Tech University and a Juris Doctor at Emory University School of Law. She is a member of the American Bar Association and a former board member of the Association of Corporate Counsel. She is also a member of the Executive Leadership Council. In 2016, she was appointed by Virginia Gov. Terry McAuliffe to Christopher Newport University's board of visitors.

Huntington Ingalls Industries is America's largest military shipbuilding company and a provider of professional services to partners in government and industry. For more than a century, HII's Newport News and Ingalls shipbuilding divisions in Virginia and Mississippi have built more ships in more ship classes than any other U.S. naval shipbuilder. HII's Technical Solutions division provides a wide range of professional services through its Fleet Support, Mission Driven Innovative Solutions, Nuclear & Environmental, and Oil & Gas groups.
